

MAKELESI BULIKIOBO

She is a two-time Olympian who represented Fiji in athletics at the 2004 Athens and 2008 Beijing Olympic Games, and she continues to hold Pacific Games records in the 200m and 400m. As Fiji's national record holder from the 100m through to the 800m, she has proudly showcased her talent on the world stage, including appearances at the World Athletics Championships and the Commonwealth Games. Alongside her achievements on the track, she has dedicated over 15 years to sport development, education, and coaching, serving as an ONOC OSEP Master Educator and Sport Development Officer. Her professional career has also focused on using sport as a tool for development and environmental education, reflecting her belief in the power of sport to create positive change. Today, she is passionate about mentoring the next generation and creating safe, supportive spaces for women in athletics coaching.

SPECIAL PROJECT: Pathfinders – Empowering the Empowerers

Establishing sustainable coaching pathways to increase the number of women in coaching positions, accompanied by opportunities for professional development in inclusive coaching environments.

OCEANIA
Women's Leadership
Training